What brands gain.

A focused audience, premium presentation and less work for your hiring team.

Reach qualified candidates

A fashion-focused audience, not a generic job board. Every visitor is here for a career in the industry you hire for.

Beautiful presentation

Every posting is rendered in the same considered layout, so your role looks premium the moment it goes live.

Less hiring friction

An AI-assisted posting flow turns a link, a PDF or a paragraph into a polished, recruiter-reviewed listing in minutes.

Editorial exposure

Featured companies earn additional visibility across the homepage, category pages and our editorial channels.

European audience

Candidates from design capitals across the continent, from Paris and Milan to Amsterdam, Copenhagen and Berlin.

Premium employer brand

Built for brands that care about aesthetics. How you appear here signals the same taste candidates expect from you.

HOW POSTING WORKS

Send a link, a PDF or a paragraph. We draft the listing, you approve it, and it goes live once reviewed — usually the same day.

EVERY ROLE IS VETTED

Roles are read by hand before publishing, which is why candidates trust the index and open the alerts.

Ready to hire people who love fashion as much as you do?

Post a job and we'll walk through your open roles, the audience they'd reach, and the right level of promotion for each one.
